AED General Awareness

Course Description

This short session is for every employee – in offices, shops, yards and out in the field. It will give you the awareness you need if someone suddenly collapses at work and you have access to an AED to help save a life.