Hazard Identification and Risk Assessment – French

Course Description

This course will walk through how to think like an assessor, how to observe work with a safety lens, how to judge the level of risk, and how to make sound decisions about controls. It will talk through real situations, common mistakes, and how supervisors and workers can work together to strengthen the safety culture in their workplace. (French Version)