Incident and Accident Investigation for Supervisors and Managers

Course Description

This course for managers and supervisors, covers the purpose and benefits of incident investigations and investigation methods, as well as common practices for information gathering and documentation, and tools for determining root cause and implementing corrective actions.