Retail & Grocery: Slips, Trips and the Unseen Floor Hazard Fatality File

Employee Dies After Fall From Ladder While Stocking Shelves

At 12:00 a.m. on August 23, 2022, an employee was stocking shelves from a ladder at a home improvement retail store. The employee fell from the 7-1/2 foot ladder and struck his head. The employee was transported to the hospital, where he later died from the head injury.

Source: https://www.osha.gov