Weather Hazards for Roofers – When to Stop Work – Refresher – Spanish

Course Description

When it comes to weather hazards roofing under tough conditions can be risky—high winds, lightning, heavy rain, or extreme cold/heat all pose serious dangers. This refresher course will talk about when you need to consider stopping work when the weather is bad. (Spanish Version)