

Slips Trips & Falls – Horizontal Fall Protection for Managers and Supervisors

Course Description

Developed for managers and supervisors, this course will help you understand and explain the differences between slips, trips and falls□, identify and assess the hazards that cause each one□ and select appropriate controls to manage those hazards, including engineering controls, administrative and work controls and fall protection and other personal protective equipment (or PPE).