The Ripple Effect of Safety Fallen Phrases

Answer: The ripple effect is the notion that a single action has an effect over several different entities. Ripple effect is defined as “a spreading, pervasive, and usually unintentional effect or influence”. Workplace safety needs to be intentional; the ultimate effect and influence should be planned and deliberate.