

The Ripple Effect of Safety Fallen Phrases

E
U
T

T S

N A P T I D A G T

U R E N T E E U A E C S L C N I E L

I T A E A F D G E N D N N E S L P P H E

E F L L Y T N F F L C E U E S C I T H O T I O

E H E I N F N N I E N E F F E O D K A L A F L

I O F E S R I H A Y N P L I T N E L R R S M A A D

H A S O N N I O I T N A T D I I I O O S B T T N A N

U S T L F A C N U P L N T E E D I S B L E S V U C D E

E N F P C T N R E D N A E F E T E N W R E S R E E P E C B E

Answer: The ripple effect is the notion that a single action has an effect over several different entities. Ripple effect is defined as “a spreading, pervasive, and usually unintentional effect or influence”. Workplace safety needs to be intentional; the ultimate effect and influence should be planned and deliberate.